

MUSICIAN SPOTLIGHTS

Amber Stout, Violin

Amber has been playing the violin for 8 years. She is newly married to Sam Stout, who is a percussionist, pianist, and is now learning to play the Hurdy-Gurdy. She has been a member of the Hurricane Valley Symphony for two and a half years.

Outside of music, Amber enjoys hiking, cooking, gardening, caring for house plants, and baking. In addition to her primary instrument she also plays guitar and ukulele.

Jacob Stewart, Clarinet

Jacob started his musical career playing piano. He began playing the clarinet when he was in fourth grade under the tutelage of his mother Joan Howell, who is also a member of the Hurricane Valley Symphony. In addition to clarinet he plays alto sax, is learning how to play the oboe, and sings in his church choir. He has been a member of Hurricane Valley Symphony for two years.

Professionally, Jacob serves as an estate and tax planning/trust attorney. In his personal life, he is married with six children. He enjoys reading, playing ultimate Frisbee, speaking French, hiking, attending church, and spending time with his family.

Hope is the Thing with Feathers

“Hope” is the thing with feathers -
That perches in the soul -
And sings the tune without the words -
And never stops - at all -

And sweetest - in the Gale - is heard -
And sore must be the storm -
That could abash the little Bird
That kept so many warm -

I’ve heard it in the chilliest land -
And on the strangest Sea -
Yet - never - in Extremity,
It asked a crumb - of me.

Poem by Emily Dickinson
